<sup>4)</sup> Amendments to the said Act were published in the Journal of Laws of 1988, item 324, of 1989, item 187, of 1990, item 173, of 1991, item 442, of 1996, item 542, of 1997, item 554 and 770, of 1999, item 999, of 2001, item 1198, of 2002, item 1271, of 2004, item 1181, of 2005, item 377, of 2007, item 590, of 2010, item 1228 and 1551, of 2011, item 459, 934, 1204 and 1660, of 2012, item 1136, of 2013, item 771 and of 2017, item 2173.

the Regulation 2016/679 if this serves the performance of a public task and non-fulfilment of the obligations referred to in Article 15 para. 1-3 of the Regulation 2016/679 is necessary to fulfil the purposes referred to in Article 23 para. 1 of that Regulation, and fulfilment of those obligations:

- 1) shall make it impossible or shall significantly hinder the performance of a public task, and the interest or fundamental rights or freedoms of the data subject are not superior with respect to the interest ensuing from the performance of that public task or
- 2) shall infringe the protection of classified information.

2. In the case where fulfilment of the obligations referred to in Article 15 para. 1 and 3 of the Regulation 2016/679 would involve a disproportionate effort associated with retrieving the personal data, the controller performing a public task shall ask the data subject for information making it possible to retrieve those data. The provision of Article 64 of the Act of 14 June 1960 - Code of Administrative Procedure (Journal of Laws of 2017, item 1257, and of 2018, items 149 and 650) shall apply accordingly.

3. In the cases referred to in para. 1 and 2, the controller shall implement appropriate measures to protect the interest or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject.

4. The controller shall be obliged to inform the data subject at its request, without undue delay, not later though than within one month of the day on which such request is received, about the grounds for not fulfilling the obligations referred to in Article 15 para. 1-3 of the Regulation 2016/679.

Article 5a. 1. The controller who received personal data from an entity performing a public task does not comply with the obligations referred to in Article 15 para. 1 and 3 of the Regulation 2016/679 in case where the entity transferring personal data made a request in this regard due to the need for proper performance of a public task aimed at:

- 1) the prevention, detection or prosecution of criminal offences or the execution of criminal penalties, including the safeguarding against and the prevention of threats to public security;
- 2) the protection of the State's economic or financial interests which includes in particular:
  - a) realizing and claiming revenues from taxes, payments, tax-exempt budget receivables and other receivables,
  - b) carrying out administrative enforcement of pecuniary and non-pecuniary receivables as well as securing pecuniary and non-pecuniary receivables,
  - c) preventing the use of the activities of banks and financial institutions for the purposes related to tax frauds,
  - d) disclosure and recovery of assets threatened with forfeiture in connection with offences,
  - e) performing inspections, including customs and fiscal inspections.

2. In the case referred to in para. 1 the controller shall reply to the request lodged on the ground of Article 15 of the Regulation 2016/679 in a way which allows to establish that the controller is processing personal data received from the entity performing a public task.

Article 6. The Act and the Regulation 2016/679 shall not apply to:

- 1) processing of personal data by entities of the public finance sector referred to in Article 9 items 1, 3, 5, 6 and 14 of the Act of 27 August 2009 on Public Finance (Journal of Laws of 2017, item 2077 and of 2018, items 62 and 1000), to the extent that processing is necessary to perform tasks aimed at guaranteeing national security, if special provisions stipulate necessary measures of protecting the rights and freedoms of the data subject;
- 2) activities of special forces within the meaning of Article 11 of the Act of 24 May 2002 on the Internal Security Agency and Foreign Intelligence Agency (Journal of Laws of 2017, items 1920 and 2405 and of 2018, items 138, 650, 723 and 730).

Article 6a. 1. The provisions of Articles 4-7, Article 11, Article 12, Article 16, Article 17, Article 24 para. 1 and 2, Articles 28-30, Article 32, Article 34, Article 35, Articles 37-39 and Article 86 of the Regulation 2016/679 as well as the provisions of Article 6 and Article 11 of the Act shall apply respectively to the processing of personal data within the exercise of the constitutional and statutory competences of the President of the Republic of Poland, in the scope not covered by national security.

2. The processing of data referred to in Article 9 and Article 10 of the Regulation 2016/679 shall take place in the scope necessary to exercise the constitutional and statutory competences of the President of the Republic of Poland, if the exercise of the tasks resulting from those competences is not overridden by the rights and freedoms of the data subject.

Article 7. 1. In matters not regulated in the Act, the Act of 14 June 1960 - Code of Administrative Procedure shall apply to administrative procedures before the President of the Personal Data Protection Office, hereinafter referred to as “President of the Office”, referred to in chapters 4-7 and 11.

2. The procedure before the President of the Office shall be a single-instance procedure.

3. Appeal provisions shall not apply to resolutions issued in procedures referred to in para. 1 which can be contested in accordance with the Act of 14 June 1960 - Code of Administrative Procedure.

4. The resolutions referred to in para. 3 may be appealed to an administrative court.

Chapter 2

Designation of the data protection officer

Article 8. The controller and the processor shall be obliged to designate a data protection officer, hereinafter referred to as “officer”, in the cases and in accordance with the principles set out in Article 37 of the Regulation 2016/679.

Article 9. The public authorities and bodies obliged to designate the officer referred to in Article 37 para. 1(a) of the Regulation 2016/679 shall mean:

- 1) entities of the public finance sector;
- 2) research institutes;
- 3) the National Bank of Poland.

Article 10. 1. The entity which has designated an officer shall notify the President of the Office about the designation within 14 days of the day of the designation, indicating the officer’s first and last name and the electronic mail address or phone number.

2. The notification can be made by an authorized representative of the body referred to in para. 1. A power of attorney granted in electronic form shall be attached to the notification.

3. Apart from the data referred to in para. 1 the following shall be provided in the notification:

- 1) the first and last name and the residence address if the controller or the processor is a natural person;
- 2) the entrepreneur’s business name and the address of the place of business if the controller or the processor is a natural person pursuing a business activity;
- 3) the full name and the address of the registered office if the controller or the processor is an entity other than indicated in items 1 and 2;
- 4) REGON identification number, if such has been assigned to the controller or the processor.

4. The entity which has designated an officer shall notify the President of the Office about every change of data referred to in para. 1 and 3, and about recalling of the officer, within 14 days of the day on which the change occurred or the officer was recalled.

5. In a situation where one officer is designated by public authorities or bodies or by a group of entrepreneurs, each of these entities shall make the notification referred to in para. 1 and 4.

6. The notifications referred to in para. 1 and 4 shall be made in electronic form and shall be affixed with a qualified electronic signature or a signature confirmed by a trusted ePUAP profile.

Article 11. The entity which has designated an officer shall provide the officer’s data referred to in Article 10 para. 1 immediately after the officer is designated on its website, and if it does not run its own website, in a commonly available manner at the place of business.

Article 11a. 1. The entity which has designated an officer can designate a person replacing the officer during his or her absence, considering the criteria referred to in Article 37 para. 5 and 6 of the Regulation 2016/679.

2. In connection with the performance of the officer’s obligations during his/her absence, the provisions concerning the officer shall apply respectively to the person replacing him or her.

3. The entity which has designated a person replacing the officer shall inform the President of the Office about his or her designation in the mode specified in Article 10 and provide his or her data in accordance with Article 11.

Chapter 3

Conditions and mode of accrediting the certification body

Article 12. 1. Accreditation of bodies applying for a certification license with regard to protection of personal data referred to in Article 43 of the Regulation 2016/679, hereinafter referred to as “accreditation”, shall be granted by the Polish Centre for Accreditation.

2. Accreditation shall be granted in accordance with the principles set out in Article 43 para. 1-7 of the Regulation 2016/679.

3. The procedure of granting an accreditation shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 4 of the Act of 13 April 2016 on Conformity Assessment Systems and Market Surveillance (Journal of Laws of 2017, item 1398 and of 2018, item 650), excluding Article 24 para. 4-7 and Article 25 para. 1 and 2 as regards limitation of the scope of accreditation and suspension thereof.

Article 13. The President of the Office shall provide on his or her website, in the Public Information Bulletin, the accreditation criteria referred to in Article 43 para. 3 of the Regulation 2016/679.

Article 14. 1. The Polish Centre for Accreditation shall inform the President of the Office about an accreditation being granted.

2. Information about the accreditation granted shall contain:

- 1) an indication of the entity to which the accreditation was granted;
- 2) an indication of the scope of the accreditation granted and the period of its validity.

3. The Polish Centre for Accreditation shall inform the President of the Office about an accreditation being revoked.

4. Information about the accreditation revoked shall contain:

- 1) an indication of the entity whose accreditation was revoked;
- 2) an indication of the reason justifying the revocation of the accreditation.

5. The President of the Office and the Polish Centre for Accreditation may conclude a cooperation agreement on monitoring of activities of the certification bodies and mutual exchange of information concerning those bodies.

Chapter 4

Conditions and mode of certification

Article 15. 1. The certification referred to in Article 42 of the Regulation 2016/679, hereinafter referred to as “certification”, shall be performed by the President of the Office or the certification body, upon the request of the controller, processor, manufacturer or entity marketing a service or product.

2. Certification shall be performed in accordance with the principles set out in the Regulation 2016/679.

3. Any matters concerning certification by the certification body not regulated in the Regulation 2016/679 and the Act shall be governed by the provisions of a civil law contract concluded between the certification body and the entity applying for certification.

Article 16. The President of the Office shall provide on his or her website, in the Public Information Bulletin, the certification criteria referred to in Article 42 para. 5 of the Regulation 2016/679.

Article 17. 1. The application for certification shall contain at least:

- 1) the name of the entity applying for certification or its first and last name and an indication of the address of its registered office, address of the place of business or residence address;
- 2) information confirming the fulfilment of the certification criteria;
- 3) an indication of the scope of the certification.

2. Documents confirming the fulfilment of the certification criteria or copies thereof and, in case of certification being performed by the President of the Office, a proof of payment of the fee referred to in Article 26, shall be attached to the application.

3. The application shall be submitted in written form on paper or in electronic format, signed with, respectively, a handwritten signature or a qualified electronic signature. Application submitted to the President of the Office in electronic format shall be affixed with a qualified electronic signature or a signature confirmed by a trusted ePUAP profile.

Article 18. 1. The President of the Office or the certification body shall consider the application for certification and, within a time not exceeding 3 months of the day the application compliant with Article 17 is submitted, after checking whether the certification criteria have been fulfilled, shall notify the applicant about either a successful certification or its refusal.

2. An application submitted to the President of the Office, not containing the information referred to in Article 17 para. 1(1), shall not be considered. Should the application lack the information referred to in Article 17 para. 1(2) or (3), or should it not fulfil the requirements referred to in Article 17 para. 2 or 3, the President of the Office shall call upon the applicant to supplement it, together with an instruction that failure to supplement it within 7 days of the day of delivery of the summons shall cause the application to be left unconsidered.

Article 19. Prior to the certification or its refusal, the certification body shall notify the President of the Office about the planned certification or its refusal.

Article 20. 1. Should it be determined that the entity applying for certification does not fulfil the certification criteria, the President of the Office or the certification body shall refuse to perform it.

2. The refusal of the President of the Office to perform the certification shall be made by way of a decision.

3. The certification body shall prepare and provide to interested entities a procedure in case of a refusal to perform certification.

Article 21. 1. The document confirming certification shall be a certificate.

2. The certificate shall contain, at least:

- 1) a designation of the entity which received the certificate;
- 2) the name of the certification body and an indication of its address;
- 3) the certificate's number or symbol;
- 4) the scope, including the period for which the certification was performed;
- 5) the date of issue and signature of the certification body or person authorized by it.

Article 22. 1. During the period for which the certification was performed, the entity to which the certificate was granted shall be obliged to fulfil the certification criteria in effect on the day the certificate was issued.

2. The President of the Office or the certification body shall revoke a certificate where the conditions for the certification are not, or are no longer, met.

3. The revocation of a certificate by the President of the Office shall be made by way of a decision.

Article 23. 1. The certification body shall convey to the President of the Office the data of the entity to which the certificate was granted as well as the entity whose certificate was revoked, together with an indication of the reason for its revocation.

2. The President of the Office shall keep a publicly available list of entities referred to in para. 1.

3. The President of the Office shall make an entry on the list immediately after certification or receiving information about certification being performed by a certification body.

4. The President of the Office shall publish the list on his or her website, in the Public Information Bulletin, and shall update it.

Article 24. 1. Within the time referred to in Article 18 para. 1, as well as after the certification, the President of the Office shall have the right, for the purpose of assessing the entity's fulfilment of the certification criteria, to conduct an inspection at the controller's, processor's, manufacturer's or entity's marketing a service or product.

2. The President of the Office shall notify the entity referred to in para. 1 of the intention to conduct an inspection.

3. The inspection shall be conducted not earlier than after 7 days and not later than within 30 days of the date of delivery of the notification of the intention to conduct an inspection to the entity referred to in para. 1. If the inspection is not conducted within 30 days of the date of delivery of the notification, the initiation of an inspection shall require another notification.

4. The inspection shall be conducted on the basis of a personal authorization issued by the President of the Office, which shall contain:

- 1) the first and last name of the person conducting the inspection;
- 2) a designation of the controller, processor, manufacturer or entity marketing a service or product;

- 3) an indication of the legal basis for conducting the inspection;
- 4) the scope of the inspection;
- 5) the date and place of its issuance;
- 6) the signature of the person authorized to issue the authorization on behalf of the President of the Office.

Article 25. 1. The person conducting the inspection shall be authorized to:

- 1) enter any land, buildings, premises, or other spaces on business days and during the business hours of the controller, processor, manufacturer or entity marketing a service or product;
- 2) inspect documents and information directly related to the business operations covered by certification;
- 3) inspect devices, media, IT and ICT systems used in data processing;
- 4) request oral or written clarifications on issues associated with the business operations covered by certification.

2. The inspection shall be performed in the presence of the controller, processor, manufacturer or entity marketing a service or product or a person authorized by it.

3. A protocol shall be drawn up from the inspection which shall be presented to the controller, processor, manufacturer or entity marketing a service or product. The provisions of Article 88 shall apply accordingly.

Article 26. 1. The President of the Office shall charge a fee for the activities associated with certification; its value shall correspond to the anticipated costs of these activities.

2. Determining the value of the fee, the President of the Office shall take into account the scope of certification, the anticipated course and duration of the certification procedure and the costs of labour of the employee performing activities associated with certification.

3. The maximum value of the fee cannot exceed a four-fold of the average remuneration in the national economy in the calendar year preceding the year of submission of the application for certification, announced by the President of the Central Statistical Office of Poland pursuant to Article 20 (1) (a) of the Act of 17 December 1998 on Pensions from the Social Insurance Fund (Journal of Laws of 2017, item 1383, as amended<sup>5</sup>).

4. The President of the Office shall publish on his or her website, in the Public Information Bulletin, the value of the fee which the entity referred to in Article 15 shall be obliged to pay for activities associated with certification.

5. The fee shall constitute income of the State budget.

Chapter 5

Drawing up and approving the code of conduct, conditions and the mode of accrediting the body monitoring compliance therewith

Article 27. 1. The drawing up, issuing an opinion on and approving the code of conduct shall be in accordance with the principles set out in the Regulation 2016/679.

2. Prior to being forwarded to the President of the Office for approval, the code of conduct shall be consulted with interested entities.

3. Information about the consultations and their outcome shall be conveyed to the President of the Office together with the code of conduct.

4. Should the President of the Office find the scope of the consultations to be insufficient, he or she shall call upon the entity to re-consult it, indicating the scope thereof.

5. The party to the procedure concerning approval of the code of conduct shall solely be the applicant applying for its approval. The provisions of Article 31 of the Act of 14 June 1960 - Code of Administrative Procedure - shall not apply.

6. Para. 1-5 shall apply to the process of amending or extending the code of conduct.

Article 28. Compliance with the approved code of conduct shall be monitored by a body accredited by the President of the Office in accordance with the principles set out in Article 41 of the Regulation 2016/679.

<sup>5</sup> Amendments to the consolidated text of the said Act were published in the Journal of Laws of 2017, item 1386 and 2120 and of 2018, items 138, 357, 730 and 912.

Article 29. 1. Accreditation of the body referred to in Article 28 shall be granted upon request containing at least:

- 1) the name of the body applying for accreditation and the address of its registered office;
- 2) information confirming the fulfilment of the criteria referred to in Article 41 para. 1 and 2 of the Regulation 2016/679.

2. Documents confirming the fulfilment of the criteria referred to in Article 41 para. 1 and 2 of the Regulation 2016/679 or copies thereof shall be attached to the application.

3. The application shall be submitted in written form on paper or in electronic format, signed with, respectively, a handwritten signature or a qualified electronic signature or a signature confirmed by a trusted ePUAP profile.

Article 30. 1. The President of the Office shall consider the application referred to in Article 29 para. 1 and, within a time not exceeding 3 months of the day the application compliant with Article 29 is submitted, after checking whether the criteria referred to in Article 41 para. 1 and 2 of the Regulation 2016/679 have been fulfilled, shall notify the body applying for accreditation about either a successful accreditation or its refusal.

2. An application submitted to the President of the Office, not containing the information referred to in Article 29 para. 1(1), shall not be considered. Should the application lack the information referred to in Article 29 para. 1(2), or should it not fulfil the requirements referred to in para. 2 or 3, the President of the Office shall call upon the applicant to supplement it, together with an instruction that failure to supplement it within 7 days of the day of delivery of the summons shall cause the application to be left unconsidered.

3. Should it be determined that the body applying for accreditation does not fulfil the criteria referred to in Article 41 para. 1 and 2 of the Regulation 2016/679, the President of the Office shall refuse accreditation. The refusal to grant an accreditation shall be made by way of a decision.

Article 31. 1. The document confirming accreditation shall be an accreditation certificate.

2. The accreditation certificate shall contain, at least:

- 1) designation of the accredited body and the address of its registered office;
- 2) the accreditation certificate's number or symbol;
- 3) the date of issue and signature of the President of the Office or person authorized by him or her.

Article 32. 1. During the period for which the accreditation has been granted, the accredited body shall be obliged to fulfil the criteria referred to in Article 41 para. 1 and 2 of the Regulation 2016/679, in effect on the day the accreditation certificate was issued.

2. The President of the Office shall revoke the accreditation by way of a decision should it be determined that the accredited body:

- 1) does not fulfil or ceased fulfilling the criteria referred to in Article 41 para. 1 and 2 of the Regulation 2016/679;
- 2) undertakes activities incompliant with the Regulation 2016/679.

Article 33. 1. The President of the Office shall keep a publicly available list of accredited bodies.

2. The President of the Office shall make an entry on the list immediately after accreditation.

3. The President of the Office shall publish the list on his or her website, in the Public Information Bulletin, and shall update it.

Chapter 6

President of the Office

Article 34. 1. The President of the Office is the authority competent in matters of personal data protection.

2. The President of the Office is a supervisory authority within the meaning of the Regulation 2016/679, within the meaning of the Directive (EU) 2016/680 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by competent authorities for the purposes of the prevention, investigation, detection or prosecution of criminal offences or the execution of criminal penalties, and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Council Framework Decision 2008/977/JHA (Official Journal of the European Union L 119 of 04.05.2016, p. 89) and within the meaning of the Regulation (EU) 2016/794 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 May 2016 on the European Union Agency for Law Enforcement Cooperation (Europol) and replacing and repealing Council Decisions 2009/371/JHA, 2009/934/JHA, 2009/935/JHA, 2009/936/JHA and 2009/968/JHA (Official Journal of the European Union L 135 of 24.05.2016, p. 53).

3. The President of the Office shall be appointed and recalled by the Sejm of the Republic of Poland upon the consent of the Senate of the Republic of Poland.

4. The post of the President of the Office can be assumed by a person who:

- 1) is a Polish citizen;
- 2) has higher education;
- 3) has expert legal knowledge and experience in personal data protection;
- 4) enjoys full public rights;
- 5) has not been convicted by a final judgement for intentionally committed criminal or tax offence;
- 6) has good reputation.

5. The President of the Office shall be subject solely to the Act as regards the scope of his or her tasks.

6. The term of office of the President of the Office shall last 4 years, counting from the day on which an oath is taken. After the lapse of the term of office, the President of the Office shall perform his or her duties until the duties are taken up by a new President of the Office.

7. The same person cannot be a President of the Office for more than two terms of office.

8. The term of office of the President of the Office shall expire at the moment of his or her death, recall or loss of Polish citizenship.

9. The President of the Office may be recalled before the lapse of the term of office solely in a situation where:

- 1) he or she renders his or her resignation from the post;
- 2) he or she becomes permanently incapable of performing the duties as a result of an illness confirmed with a medical certificate;
- 3) he or she violated his or her oath of office;
- 4) he or she was convicted by way of a legally binding judgement for an intentional crime or an intentional fiscal crime;
- 5) he or she was deprived of his or her public rights.

10. In case of expiry of the term of office of the President of the Office, his or her duties shall be performed by the deputy of the President of the Office designated by the Marshal of the Sejm of the Republic of Poland.

Article 35. 1. Prior to assuming his or her duties, the President of the Office shall take the following oath before the Sejm of the Republic of Poland:

“Assuming the post of the President of the Personal Data Protection Office I hereby solemnly swear to observe the provisions of the Constitution of the Republic of Poland, to safeguard the right for personal data protection, and to perform the duties entrusted to me conscientiously and impartially.”.

2. The oath may be taken with the words: “So help me, God”.

Article 36. 1. The President of the Office may appoint up to three deputies.

2. The post of the deputy President of the Office can be assumed by a person who:

- 1) is a Polish citizen;
- 2) has higher education;
- 3) has expert legal knowledge and experience in personal data protection;
- 4) enjoys full public rights;
- 5) has not been convicted by way of a legally binding judgement for an intentional crime or an intentional fiscal crime;
- 6) has good reputation.

Article 37. 1. The President of the Office and his or her deputies may not hold other posts except for a didactic, scientific and didactic or scientific position at a university, at the Polish Academy of Sciences, in a scientific research institute or another scientific establishment, or pursue any other activities, whether gainful or not, inconsistent with the duties of the President of the Office.

2. The President of the Office and his or her deputies may not belong to any political party, trade union, or conduct public activity irreconcilable with the dignity of their office.

Article 38. 1. The President of the Office may neither be held criminally liable nor deprived of liberty without the prior consent of the Sejm of the Republic of Poland.

2. The President of the Office may express consent to holding him or her criminally liable for petty offences referred to in para. 3, in line with the procedure specified in this provision.

3. If the President of the Office has committed petty offence referred to in Chapter XI of the Act of 20 May 1971 – the Code of Petty Offences (Journal of Laws of 2018, items 618 and 911), the fact of accepting a penalty notice or paying a fine by the President of the Office, in the event of issuing a penalty notice in absentia referred to in Article 98 § 1 (3) of the Act of 24 August 2001 – the Petty Offences Procedure Code (Journal of Laws of 2018, item 475) shall constitute a statement of his or her consent to hold him or her liable in this way.

4. The President of the Office may not be detained or arrested, except in the act of committing a criminal offence, provided that his or her detention is necessary to secure the due course of proceedings. In such a case the Marshal of the Sejm has to be notified of the detention forthwith and may order that the detainee be immediately released.

Article 39. In criminal proceedings, the period of limitation for an act covered by immunity shall not run in the period in which the immunity is valid.

Article 40. 1. An application for consent to holding the President of the Office criminally liable in a case concerning a criminal offence prosecuted by public indictment shall be filed through the Prosecutor General.

2. An application for consent to holding the President of the Office criminally liable in a case concerning a criminal offence prosecuted by private indictment shall be filed by a private prosecutor, after the case has been brought to court.

3. The application referred to in para. 2 shall be prepared and signed by an advocate or a legal adviser, with the exception of applications filed in their own cases by judges, public prosecutors, advocates, legal advisers, notaries, and persons holding a degree of professor or habilitated doctor in law sciences.

4. The applications referred to in para. 1 and 2 shall include:

- 1) an indication of the applicant and the authorized representative, if appointed;
- 2) the first and last name and the date and place of birth of the President of the Office;
- 3) an indication of the legal basis for the application;
- 4) a detailed description of the act with an indication of the time, place, manner, and circumstances in which it was committed, as well as of its effects, and in particular of the nature of the resultant damage;
- 5) a substantiation.

Article 41. 1. The application for consent to holding the President of the Office criminally liable shall be filed to the Marshal of the Sejm.

2. If the application does not meet the formal requirements referred to in Article 40 para. 3 or 4, the Marshal of the Sejm shall call upon the applicant to correct or supplement the application within 14 days, indicating the required scope of the correction or supplementation. If the application is not corrected or supplemented within the specified time limit and scope, the Marshal of the Sejm shall decide not to consider the application.

3. If the application meets the formal requirements referred to in Article 40 para. 3 and 4, the Marshal of the Sejm shall direct the application for consideration to the competent authority of the Sejm of the Republic of Poland, at the same time informing the President of the Office of the contents of the application.

4. The authority competent to consider the application shall notify the President of the Office of the date of consideration of the application. At least 7 days shall elapse between the service of the notification and the date of consideration of the application, as long as the case is not urgent.

5. At the request of the authority competent to consider the application, the proceedings records shall be made available by the court or the appropriate authority before which the proceedings against the President of the Office are pending.

6. The President of the Office shall present to the authority competent to consider the case explanations and own conclusions related to that case, in written form or orally.

7. Having considered the case, the authority competent to consider the application shall adopt a report along with a proposal to accept or reject the application.

8. While the report referred to in para. 7 is being considered by the Sejm of the Republic of Poland, the President of the Office shall have the right to take the floor.

9. The Sejm of the Republic of Poland shall consent to holding the President of the Office criminally liable by way of a resolution adopted by an absolute majority of the statutory number of deputies. If the required majority of votes is not achieved, it shall be considered that a resolution on the absence of consent to hold the President of the Office criminally liable has been adopted.

Article 42. 1. The prohibition on detention referred to in Article 38 para. 4 shall cover all and any forms of depriving or restricting the liberty of the President of the Office by authorities authorized to apply coercive measures.

2. The application for consent to detain or arrest the President of the Office shall be filed through the Prosecutor General.

3. The application referred to in para. 2 shall contain:

- 1) an indication of the applicant;
- 2) the first and last name and the date and place of birth of the President of the Office;
- 3) a detailed description of the act and the legal classification of the act;
- 4) the legal basis for applying the given measure;
- 5) a statement of reasons, indicating in particular the need to apply the given measure.

4. The provisions of Article 41 para. 1-8 shall apply accordingly to the process of handling the application referred to in para. 2.

5. The Sejm of the Republic of Poland shall consent to detaining or arresting the President of the Office by way of a resolution adopted by an absolute majority of the statutory number of deputies. If the required majority of votes is not achieved, it shall be considered that a resolution on the absence of consent to the detention or arrest of the President of the Office has been adopted.

6. The requirement to obtain the consent of the Sejm of the Republic of Poland shall not apply to the execution of a sentence of imprisonment imposed by a final and binding court judgement.

Article 43. 1. The Marshal of the Sejm shall immediately send the resolution referred to in Article 41 para. 9 and Article 42 para. 5 to the applicant.

2. The resolutions referred to in Article 41 para. 9 and Article 42 para. 5 shall be published in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Poland "Monitor Polski".

Article 44. The provisions of the Act concerning the criminal liability of the President of the Office shall apply accordingly to liability for petty offences.

Article 45. 1. The President of the Office shall perform his or her tasks through the Personal Data Protection Office, hereinafter referred to as "Office".

2. In situations justified by the nature and number of cases pertaining to personal data protection in the given area, the President of the Office may establish local branches of the Office.

3. By way of an order, the President of the Office shall lay down the Office's Statutes defining:

- 1) the Office's internal organization,
- 2) the scope of tasks of his or her deputies,
- 3) the scope of tasks and the mode of operations of the Office's organizational units

- aimed at creating optimum organizational conditions allowing the Office to correctly perform its tasks.

Article 46. 1. The President of the Office, the deputies of the President of the Office and the Office's employees shall be obliged to keep confidential any information which they acquired in connection with their duties.

2. The obligation to keep confidential the information referred to in para. 1 shall remain in effect also after the lapse of the term of office or term of employment.

Article 47. The Council of Ministers shall define, by way of a regulation, a specimen of the official identity card of the Office's employee, taking into account the need to ensure the possibility of identifying persons authorized to perform inspections and other official duties.

Article 48. 1. A Personal Data Protection Council, hereinafter referred to as "Council", which is a consulting and advisory body, shall be affiliated to the President of the Office.

2. The tasks of the Council shall include:

- 1) providing opinions on draft documents of the European Union bodies and institutions concerning personal data protection;
- 2) providing opinions on draft legislative measures and other documents concerning personal data protection conveyed by the President of the Office;

2. The recommendations referred to in para. 1 (4) shall be prepared taking into account the nature of the given type of activity and shall be periodically updated.

3. The draft recommendations referred to in para. 1 (4) shall be consulted by the President of the Office with interested entities whose scope of activity the given draft pertains to.

Article 54. 1. The President of the Office:

- 1) makes public a list of the kind of processing operations which are subject to the requirement for a data protection impact assessment referred to in Article 35 para. 4 of the Regulation 2016/679;
- 2) may make public a list of the kind of processing operations for which no data protection impact assessment is required as referred to in Article 35 para. 5 of the Regulation 2016/679.

2. The announcements referred to in para. 1 shall be published in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Poland “Monitor Polski”.

Article 55. The President of the Office may operate an ICT system allowing the controllers to report any case of infringement of personal data protection referred to in Article 33 of the Regulation 2016/679.

Article 56. By way of a decision, the President of the Office shall:

- 1) approve binding corporate rules referred to in Article 47 of Regulation 2016/679;
- 2) give the authorization referred to in Article 46 para. 3 of Regulation 2016/679.

Article 57. 1. The controller may apply to the President of the Office with a request to hold prior consultations referred to in Article 36 of the Regulation 2016/679.

2. The provisions of Article 63 of the Act of 14 June 1960 - Code of Administrative Procedure - shall apply accordingly to the request.

3. Should the request not fulfil the requirements set out in Article 36 para. 3 of the Regulation 2016/679 and Article 63 of the Act of 14 June 1960 - Code of Administrative Procedure, the President of the Office shall inform about not providing consultation, indicating the reasons therefor.

Article 58. Should the President of the Office, based on information possessed, deem that provisions concerning personal data processing have been infringed, he or she may request that disciplinary proceedings or other proceedings provided for in the law be initiated against the persons which committed the infringement and that he or she be informed, within a specified deadline, about the outcome of the proceedings and about the measures undertaken.

Article 59. 1. In matters of personal data protection, the President of the Office shall cooperate with independent supervisory authorities established under Article 91 of the Regulation 2016/679.

2. The President of the Office may conclude an agreement with the authorities referred to in para. 1 on cooperation and mutual exchange of information.

Chapter 7

Procedure in case of infringement of the personal data protection provisions

Article 60. The procedure in case of infringement of the personal data protection provisions, hereinafter referred to as “procedure”, shall be conducted by the President of the Office.

Article 61. The social organization referred to in Article 31 § 1 of the Act of 14 June 1960 - Code of Administrative Procedure, can also participate in the procedure upon the consent of the data subject, in its name and on its behalf.

Article 62. In the case referred to in Article 36 of the Act of 14 June 1960 - Code of Administrative Procedure, the President of the Office, notifying the parties about the case not being processed on time, shall also be obliged to inform them about the progress of the case and the actions being taken in its course.

Article 63. The President of the Office may request that a party presents a Polish translation of documentation drawn up in a foreign language, submitted by the party. The party shall be obliged to obtain the translation of the documentation at its own expense.

Article 64. To perform his or her duties, the President of the Office shall have the right to access information covered by legally protected secrecy, unless special provisions stipulate otherwise.

Article 65. 1. The party may classify information, documents or parts thereof containing a business secret, being presented to the President of the Office. In this case the party shall also be obliged to present to the President of the Office a version of the document not containing classified information.

2. If no version of a document not containing classified information is presented, the classification shall be deemed as ineffective.

3. The President of the Office may rescind the classification by way of a decision should he or she decide that information, documents or parts thereof do not fulfil the prerequisites for covering them with a business secret.

4. In case of a statutory obligation to provide information or documents received from entrepreneurs to other domestic or foreign authorities or institutions, such information and documents shall be conveyed with a reservation that they are classified and on a condition that the classification is observed.

Article 66. The President of the Office shall issue the resolution referred to in Article 74 § 2 of the Act of 14 June 1960 - Code of Administrative Procedure, also in a situation where disclosure of information and documents referred to in Article 65 para. 1 may lead to the disclosure of legally protected secrets or company secret, if the request to limit access to the files for the parties to the procedure is filed by the entrepreneur from which the information comes.

Article 67. Should the number of parties in the procedure exceed 20, the President of the Office may apply the provisions of Article 49 of the Act of 14 June 1960 - Code of Administrative Procedure.

Article 68. 1. Should a need appear in the course of the procedure to supplement the evidence, the President of the Office may conduct a control procedure.

2. The duration of the control procedure shall not count towards the deadlines referred to in Article 35 of the Act of 14 June 1960 - Code of Administrative Procedure.

Article 69. 1. In the case referred to in Article 88 of the Act of 14 June 1960 - Code of Administrative Procedure, the President of the Office shall impose a fine ranging from PLN 500.00 to PLN 5,000.00.

2. Imposing the fine, the President of the Office shall take into account:

- 1) in case of a natural person - the personal situation of the summoned person and the degree of understanding of the seriousness of its obligations ensuing from the summons or
- 2) the need to adjust the value of the fine to the purpose which is compelling the summoned person to fulfil the summons.

3. The fine referred to in para. 1 can also be imposed if the party refuses to present a Polish translation of documentation drawn up in a foreign language.

Article 70. 1. If, in the course of the procedure, it is plausibly demonstrated that processing of personal data infringes personal data protection provisions and further processing thereof may cause serious and hard-to-remove consequences, to prevent such consequences the President of the Office may, by way of a resolution, oblige the entity being challenged with the infringement of the personal data protection provisions to limit processing of personal data, indicating the permissible scope of such processing.

2. In the resolution referred to in para. 1 the President of the Office shall indicate the duration of time for which the limitation of processing of personal data shall apply, which shall not be longer than until the day on which the resolution ending the procedure in the case is issued.

3. The resolution referred to in para. 1 may be appealed to an administrative court.

Article 71. 1. If, in the course of the procedure, the President of the Office decides that there are justified doubts to compliance of the decision of the European Commission referred to in Article 40 para. 9 regarding the code of conduct referred to in Article 46 para. 2 (e), and the decision referred to in Article 45 para. 3 and 5 and Article 46 para. 2 (c) of the Regulation 2016/679 with the law of the European Union, the President of the Office shall file a petition with the administrative court to address a legal question on the basis of Article 267 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union regarding the validity of the decision of the European Commission.

2. The petition referred to in para. 1, apart from fulfilling the requirements of a complaint referred to in Article 64 § 2 of the Act of 30 August 2002 - Law on Procedures before Administrative Courts (Journal of Laws of 2017, items 1369, 1370 and 2451 and of 2018, item 650), shall contain, in particular:

- 1) an indication of the decision of the European Commission which the petition concerns;
- 2) presentation of the reasons for which the President of the Office had doubts regarding the validity of the decision of the European Commission and its incompliance with the law;
- 3) the contents of the question or questions which the administrative court is presenting to the Court of Justice of the European Union, containing:
  - a) the subject matter of the dispute and the findings concerning the actual circumstances, including the party's position in the course of the procedure before the authority, if presented by the party,
  - b) an indication of the provisions of the law applicable in the case,
  - c) the operative part of the question or questions proposed to be presented to the Court of Justice of the European Union by the administrative court;
- 4) a declaration of compliance of the wording of the attachment referred to in para. 3 with the petition filed in paper format.

3. The petition referred to in para. 1 shall be accompanied by an attachment containing the wording of the petition in the form of an electronic file saved on a data medium in editable data format.

4. The party to the procedure before the administrative court as regards the petition referred to in para. 1 shall be the President of the Office.

5. The administrative court shall consider the petition referred to in para. 1 during a non-public hearing conducted by 3 judges.

6. The administrative court, recognizing the petition referred to in para. 1 to be justified, shall refer a question to the Court of Justice of the European Union for a preliminary ruling on the basis of Article 267 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

7. Should the administrative court resolve that the petition referred to in para. 1 does not contain a sufficient justification to refer a question to the Court of Justice of the European Union for a preliminary ruling, it shall issue a resolution refusing to address the question.

8. The resolution referred to in para. 7 may not be appealed.

9. The administrative court shall draw up a justification of the resolution referred to in para. 7 within 21 days.

10. No fee shall be charged for the petition referred to in para. 1.

Article 72. Prerequisites stipulated in Article 83 para. 2 of the Regulation 2016/679, on which the President of the Office based his or her decision imposing the administrative fine and determining its value, shall additionally be presented in the justification of the decision closing the procedure.
